

Borough 18 Motor Club Privacy Policy

Borough 18 Motor Club respects your privacy and we will only use your information in the way we describe in this notice. When using your information we aim to be fair and transparent and to follow our obligations under UK data protection laws. Your information is used for administering club membership, activities and competitions.

Borough 18 Motor Club is the data controller for the purpose of GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. Our club contact for privacy and data is Daniel Beckham and can be contacted in writing to: secretary@b18mc.com

Collecting your information

We collect your information when you fill in membership application or renewal forms and competition event entry and signing on forms. You can give us your information using paper forms or online forms. The information you give us may include your contact details (name, address, telephone number, email address), personal information, and identifiers (date of birth, membership number, competition licence number), who to contact in case of an accident and other information such as vehicle details.

When you give us information about another person, such as a child, parent, guardian, or emergency contact you should let that person know that you have given us the information.

If you are under 18 years old, we will also ask for information from your parent or guardian.

Using your information

We use your information when you first apply to become a member of the club and then to administer and renew your club membership and provide you with member benefits. We also use your information when you enter club events. For competitions, we will publish some of your information in the programme and the results, which will be in the public domain. Your information is used in these ways to fulfil our contract with you.

We may ask you for emergency contact and next of kin details which we will only use in an emergency, and which is use for a legitimate interest. You should let the contact and next of kin know that you have given this information to us.

We might use your information to send you messages about club activities by email or post; as a club member or entrant on our events we have lawful purpose to do this. Six months after you cease to be a member, or once a period of one year has elapsed following an event that you have entered, we will stop sending you information about club activities unless you have given us clear consent to do so; this consent can be withdrawn at any time by giving us written notice.

We will not sell your information to another organisation.

To support your lifetime relationship with motor sport and the club, and to meet Motorsport UK and insurance regulatory requirements, we may keep your information for a reasonable period of time, possibly up to seven years unless you ask us to delete it earlier.

Sharing your information

We may share your information with the Motor Sports Association as required by its General Regulations for governing motor sport, with other Motorsport UK Registered Clubs, with medical personnel, or any other person if we have to comply with a legal obligation. We may also share information such as names or email addresses with service providers, for example to print programmes or distribute photographs.

Our website

When you use our club website we may collect information about you, in particular your IP (Internet Protocol) address, by using cookies. We use this information to improve your web experience. Cookies help us to recognise you when you return to the website, and they may also help you to login securely to our web-based services, including on line entry and payment.

The club website might contain links to other websites such as online entry and payment sites, partners, and advertisers. If you follow links to other websites please review the privacy policy for each site because we are not responsible for information you share on those sites.
